DIALOG LIST

Let this day end... Oh God! Oh God!

“IN AUGUST”

Hopefully his words had another meaning.

The day the Jaguar appears shall be the day of the Jainoge.

On that day, the earth will be covered by water and fire

I know you're listening, Isabel

Tell me the world will not end today.

What happened, Isabel?

There's going to be a fire, there's going to be a fire...

Berio's blackout also happened

Bogota had no power for 3 days.

My love, you were wrong.

The flood you told me about, never happened,

it didn't even rain for years.

I'm leaving and I would like you to be here

Let this day end and let it all start again after the Jainoga
